Regular Events: Events held at the barn that do not require extended set-up. The key must be picked up at/or after 12pm the day of the scheduled event and must be returned by noon the next day after the cleaning is complete. The event must not be over 100 people.

Special Events: Events requiring special set up prior to the scheduled day or extended possession of the barn key. These events include but are not limited to weddings, high school reunions, catered events, and rentals requiring elaborate decoration. Any event over 100 people is included in this category.

Kids Birthday Parties: Kids must be 13 and under. Bar or Bat Mitzvahs, and parties for those 13 and over will be treated as either a Regular or Special Event, as designated by the barn manager.

The Ulmstead Barn key will not be transferred to a non-UCI member at any time without approval of the barn manager. A UCI member in good standing may not pick up the barn key before 12 pm on the day of your scheduled event and it must be returned by noon the next day. Exceptions include Special Events and any alternative pickup/drop-off plan approved by the barn manager. The barn must be returned to the same or better condition in which it was found prior to returning the key. Please adhere to posted clean-up guidelines. There are multiple checklists posted throughout the facility.

Please see UCI Recreation Room Rules for further details. We hope your event is successful and fun. Thank you for choosing the Ulmstead Barn!
